Have housing challenges? Learn about resources June 5

Sat May 31, 2008, 09:37 AM EDT

Somerville -

The Metropolitan Boston Housing Partnership (MBHP), a regional nonprofit housing agency that serves Somerville and 29 nearby cities and towns, will hold a meeting Thursday, June 5, from 10 to 11:30 a.m. to discuss housing challenges and resources. The meeting will take place at the Walnut Center at 35 Charlestown St.

This meeting is co-sponsored by Sen. Anthony D. Gallucio, Sen. Patricia D. Jehlen, Rep. Denise Provost, Rep. Carl M. Sciortino Jr., Rep. Timothy J. Toomey Jr., Alderman Rebekah Gewirtz, the Mayor's Office of Strategic Planning and Community Development, Community Action Agency Somerville, Somerville Community Corporation and Somerville Homeless Coalition. It will enable residents to talk about housing concerns in the community; meet with local housing and social services colleagues, learn where to go for housing resources, identify gaps in service, and obtain information from MBHP's Housing Consumer Education Center.

To RSVP, call Rennie Elliott at 617-425-6762.
